Note

My name is basil daradkeh. I am a graduate of just university with an overall rating of v. good through my clinical years and especially through my surgery rotations I've always looked and maximized patient care and how fast the process could be.

Surgery has been always fascinating to me in the manner that you are extracting the cause directly, this not only implies a great patient relief but also gives you as a surgeon excellent job satisfaction.

And as a beloved saying "great surgeons are not born, rather they are made by willingness to pay the price for excellence" i have always showed interest in being a surgeon , and ready for the price it comes with.
